

PARROT CARE and TRAINING

ONE-DAY SEMINAR

Saturday, October 9th, 2010
8:00 - 5:00

At the fabulous KAYTEE Learning Center:
585 Clay Street, Chilton, WI 53014

For more information or to register please contact
Michelle Goodman at mgoodman@central.com or 920.849.1848

The seminar is offered on-site or via the web.
Early Bird Cost (before August 25th) is $25.00 per person.
After 8/25/10 Cost is $40.00.

Lunch, snacks and refreshments are included!
Space is limited for on-site attendee's. Hurry!

Featuring

Susan Clubb

DVM, dip ABVP avian practice

- Types of pet birds- overview - History of pet bird ownership sources, etc
- Basic care, habitat, grooming, bathing, etc
- Nutrition and dietary needs
- Health care- veterinary exam, signs of illness, common problems
- First aid and emergency care

Barbara Heidenreich

Professional Animal Trainer

- Skill of training with positive reinforcement to modify parrot behavior
- Learn birds body language to better understand your parrot
- Enjoy learning through lecture, video, games, activities and live demonstrations
- Understand the drawbacks of traditional training & negative reinforcement

